Tom Noy's thumb is itself again; but

Thomas himself is forgetting all about the southern klux. Is this patriotic to him?

The fifteen pound rat at Philadelphia on his old telegraph catches. He is the animal Butler is after.

Hutchins and Beall, of the Washington Post, are both in love with Sherman, and they don't hesitate to tell him so.

It is stated that the middle in regard to the sundry civil service bill was due to the fact that the enrolling clerk was on what is termed in our wild American vernacular, a bazoo.

Rainey, colored, it is said, was one of the sober ones during the last hours of congress, and it was through his exertions that the tipy enrolling clerks were made to do their duty.

STANLEY MATTHEWS has consented to appear before the Butler committee. Is this because of the diet of cold shoulder, or because Ben Butler has promised to let him off easy?

GOVERNOR JOHN C. BROWN insists on paying his own share of the expenses of the gang that G. A. Noy sent to Louisiana, and he has forwarded another draft to Sherman for that purpose.

THE INDIAN AGENTS expect the republicans to stay the gangs of hunger, and rest quietly on a few wagon loads of traps. The system is a beautiful one in theory, but it doesn't work well in practice.

WHY should the people foot the bills of the gang that went to Louisiana with the deliberate intention of conniving at the frauds that have since been brought to light? Will some copper-bottomed patriot please rise and explain?

Mrs. JENKS, of the Louisiana horse-marines, is an amusing witness. Her testimony, in which she vainly endeavored to leave the impression that John Sherman didn't write the Weber-Anderson letter, is decidedly humorous.

CONTEMPORARY publications agree that as the hour of adjournment approached, some of our most talented congressmen exhibited a mellowness of disposition and behavior quite remarkable. This is putting it quite delicately.

MR. STEPHENS will address the people of Richmond county to-morrow night, at which time he says he will be ready to answer any question put to him or explain anything with respect to his recent course that his friends do not understand.

The republican campaign committee are even assessing their washerwomen. They do this by refusing to pay the unfortunate creatures. All women—especially washerwomen—are not as "fond of the nation" as Mrs. Jenks says she is.

BETWEEN pious sneers and a pious general, the unfortunate red men have a right hard time of it. They can get even with their pious commander, (whose name is O. O. Howard), but what remedy have they against the pious of the Indian agents.

FEMALE witnesses should take warning from the fate that will probably overtake Mrs. Jenks. They should neither be dippant. Moreover, they should never make fanciful statements. We are beginning to feel sorry for Mrs. Jenks already.

We judge from the questions of Mr. McMahon to Mrs. Jenks and the manner in which the committee receive her hippancies, that she is walking into a trap. She would do better to be a little more circumspect, and away of the fact that in Atlanta she is the only woman who is not a prostitute.

MR. P. A. KIMBELL will organize a Monte Club, the first Monday in July, at his residence, 305 E. Adams street. He has formerly taught in the Atlanta Female College, and says that the first in Atlanta to be a prostitute is the only woman who is not a prostitute.

BOARDING—Two or more large, comfortable, well-furnished rooms, suitable for families, with board, can be had by applying at No. 305 E. Adams street. 305 E. Adams street. 305 E. Adams street.

AUCTION—This day, Tuesday, 25th, at 10 o'clock, in addition to sale of Government Property, we will sell a lot of old, worn, and broken down cars, and a lot of other property. 305 E. Adams street. 305 E. Adams street. 305 E. Adams street.

THE CONSTITUTION.

ATLANTA, GA.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 25, 1918.

CONKING has been badly wounded.

A WHITE HOUSE dish—cold shoulder.

WATKINSON says he did and Hewitt says he didn't.

The amiable Pakin is still loafing around Washington.

DENNIS says he is disgusted. This is very bad for the country.

CONKING doesn't want anymore Mines sprung under him.

A BASKETFUL of frozen cucumbers isn't as cool as Mrs. Jenks.

The question now is, did General Roser really use his boot?

When did John Sherman's witnesses come to draw their salaries?

ACKLIN will hereafter be known as the average young congressman.

Old Zich Chandler would make a good witness if he could be made to talk.

If we are to judge by Acklin, late suppers are not good for the average congressman.

Why doesn't Wayne MacVough jump up and say something? The country is rapidly losing sight of him.

BIRNACK's dog is a dangerous factor in European politics—almost as dangerous as the British brickbat.

Is Conking wants to save his reputation he will apply for a subpoena, and tell what he knows about the frauds.

JUDAS MORRIS says the Florida testimony has panned out better than he or the sub-committee expected.

read anything more exquisitely characteristic and refreshing than her testimony before the Potter committee.

Mrs. Jenks is evidently one of the boys.

It is stated that Owens, the comedian, will start out next spring on a two years' professional tour, and then retire from the stage. It is a fortunate thing for Mr. Owens that he is wealthy enough to retire, but it would have been more fortunate for his fame hereafter if he had recognized in a generous manner the claims which Col. W. T. Thompson, of the Savannah News, has upon him.

Col. Thompson is the author of "The Live Indian," and that play is the basis of Mr. Owens' success. Those who undertake to write the life of the comedian should take the time to devote a chapter or two to an essay on parsimony.

SLICES OF GOLD SHOULDER.

It is reliably stated that Mr. Hayes is now engaged in the delightful pastime of giving Stanley Matthews the cold shoulder. This is a sad—in fact, we might say it is egregiously bad. We have been of the opinion all along that Stanley, in the senate or out of it, always wore one arm around Mr. Hayes' neck, and made gestures with the other. And now he is nibbling at cold shoulder. It is terrible. Such a state of things should not be allowed to continue, and we hereby appeal to Rogers, the faithful secretary of the administration, to put a stop to it. Rogers may rest assured that Mephistopheles Sherman is at the bottom of it. Let it cease. We cannot bear to sit by and see the great amateur statesman abused. Mr. Hayes should take in his cold shoulder and have it rubbed with horse liniment.

A WRANGLE.

The difficulty between Henry Waterson and little Abe Hewitt grows as to extent and rancor, but so to interest; but we feel confident that Waterson is fully able to lay little Abe as the should be fayed. In an interview in the Sun, Waterson accused Abe of falsehood; whereupon Abe replies in a letter of explanation, making a general denial, and advising the Sun to compel the Kentucky editor to prove his charges. Now comes Waterson in an open letter to Mr. Hewitt, a synopsis of which appears in our telegrams. Where the controversy will end, no man can see—or is it desirable that he should see it. It is enough to know that these two distinguished statesmen, representing opposing forces in the democratic party are engaged in a newspaper riot. The public may, therefore, sit down upon its haunches and enjoy the fun.

A WORD IN SEASON.

Now that the congressmen have returned home, the political cauldron will begin to bubble in earnest. In the midst of it all, it is to be hoped that the people will remember the manifold dangers that follow in the train of the so-called "independent" candidates, the chairman of the republican executive committee in this state, who is one of the shrewdest of politicians, is preparing for one of the most vigorous campaigns since his party was disorganized by the success of the democrats in 1870. To what extent he can solidify the negro vote remains to be seen, but it will not do for the democracy to wait and see. It will not do for the party in any congressional district to take any chances upon the result. It is enough to know that the republicans are alert and watchful, ready to throw their organization against the democrats and in favor of independence. The circular issued by Bryant leaves no room for doubt on this score, and it therefore becomes the duty of the democracy to perfect their organization and preserve the unity and harmony by which the state has been saved from the corruption and extravagance that marked the years of radical rule.

DR. ROBERT L. RODDEY.

We regret very much to learn of the death of Dr. Robert L. Roddey, of Forsyth, one of the most prominent physicians in the state. By his death, Monroe county loses one of its best citizens and the medical fraternity one of its most zealous and devoted members. Dr.

CONSTITUTION OFFICE.

— People of all classes will acknowledge that in this world much depends upon our financial condition, yet not very wisely reflect that our financial condition is the result of our own actions.

...it depends on the physical condition of the person who wears it. It is good for the health of the person who wears it, and who can accumulate more money without labor? Hence, the importance of using Cosens's Compound in the treatment of the common ailments of the throat, Colds, and all diseases of the Throat, and Lungs. Remember you —How sad that in our daily life we neglect so many things necessary to our health.
